

Come, All Ye Saints Who Dwell on Earth

HYMN

Cheerfully ♩ = 120 - 132

Come all ye Saints who dwell on earth, Your cheer - ful
His love is great, He died for us. Shall we un -
The straight and nar - row way we've found! Then let us
And there we'll join in the hea - ven - ly choir And sing His voi - ces raise! Our great Re - deem - mer's love to grate - ful be? Since He has marked a path to tra - vel on. Un - til we in the ce - le - tial prais - es a - bove, While end - less a - ges roll a -

6

12 Intro
sing, And cel - e - brate his praise. Our great Re - bliss, And said "Come fol - low me." Since He has world shall meet where Christ has gone. Un - til we round, Per - fect - ed by His love. While end - less deem - mer's love to sing, And cel - e - brate his praise.

18
marked a path to bliss, And said "Come fol - low me."
in the ce - les - tial world Shall meet where Christ has gone.
a - ges roll a - round Per - fect - ed by His love.

Text by William W. Phelps, 1792-1872

Music by Betsy Lee Bailey, b. 1955

Luke 9:23, 2 Nephi 31:19-21

COPYRIGHT 2016 Betsy Lee Bailey

This work may be copied for incidental, noncommercial church or home use.